

1.

TEACHER PREPARATION PROGRAM REPORT

Faculty at Laguna College of Art and Design meet at various times of the year to discuss policies, curriculums, and evaluate their teaching methods. All faculty attend orientation the beginning of each semester to review syllabi and review current LCAD policies and procedures. Throughout the year departmental meetings are held by the department chairs to evaluate the current state of the program. Finally, faculty attend a retreat at the culmination of each academic year to review teacher evaluations and effectiveness of teaching methods.