+ IPEDS RIGHT-TO-KNOW DISCLOSURE

Six-Year Graduation Rate

For the 2020 entering cohort, 58% of new, first-time, full-time degree-seeking undergraduates graduated within six years. The five-year average across the 2016–2020 entering cohorts is 58.1%.

58.1%
Overall (2016–2020 avg)

59.1%
Women (2016–2020 avg)

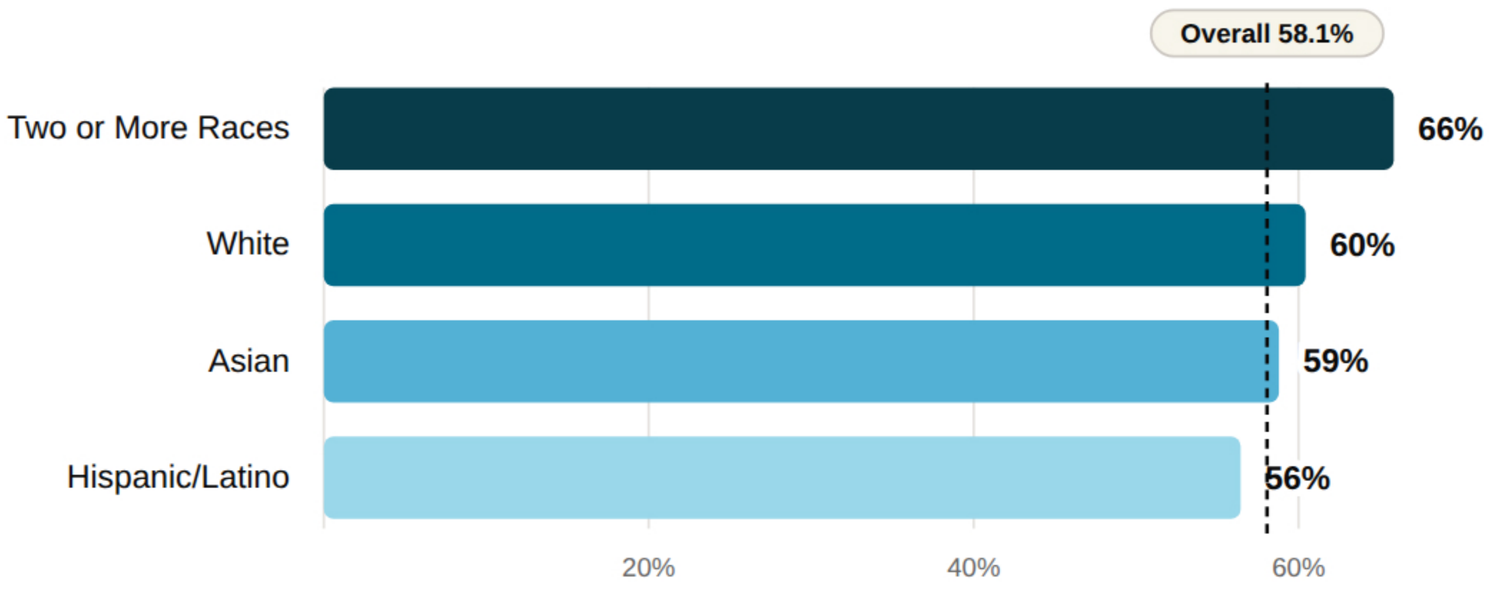

42.0%
Men (2016–2020 avg)

Overall graduation rate by entering cohort year

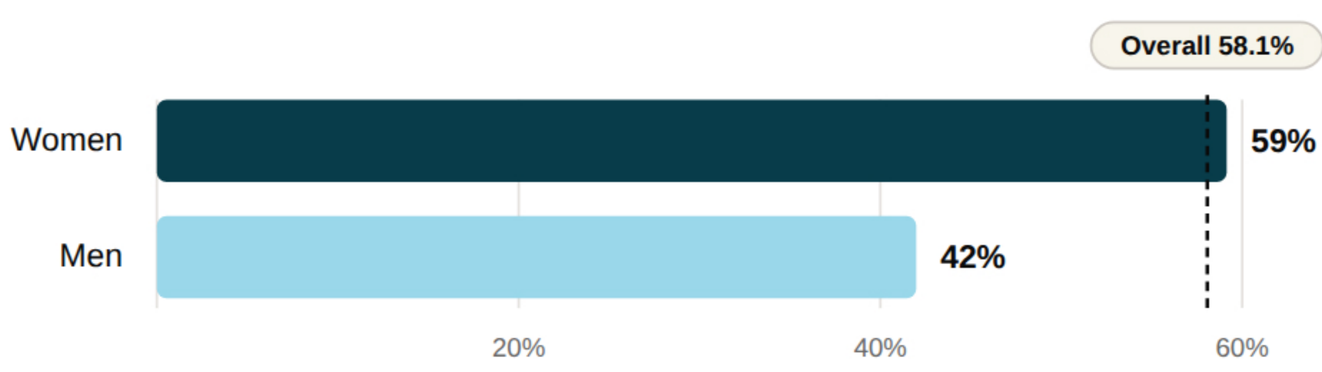

Each point is the six-year graduation rate for that fall entering cohort; n = cohort size.

Six-year graduation rate by ethnicity (2016–2020 average)

Groups with a cohort too small to report (fewer than 6 students in every year) or with no data are omitted, per IPEDS confidentiality rules.

Six-year graduation rate by gender (2016–2020 average)

Source: LCAD Office of Institutional Research — Six-Year Graduation Rates, New First-Time Full-Time Degree-Seeking Undergraduates, Fall Entrants